Acteva Announces Move to New Corporate Headquarters

Relocation Due to Continued Growth and Expansion

SAN FRANCISCO – December 18, 2005

Acteva, the leader in online event registration and payments, today announced they will be moving their corporate headquarters, effective January 1, 2006. While they will continue to be based in San Francisco's financial district, they will be moving from One Bush Street, their home for the past 2 years, to 60 Spear Street, 9th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94104. In addition, the main phone number will be changed to 415-962-9000.

"Due to our continuing growth as an organization, the move became necessary to help facilitate our increase in staff and other resources," says Pankaj Gupta, Chief Executive Officer for Acteva. "The new office will allow us to expand our business even further and host customer meetings and other events in a welcoming, professional environment that now includes a view of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge."

Acteva has been based at One Bush Street since January, 2004 and was previously located at 633 Battery St.
